Rotin

design by Zanellato / Bortotto

ZB

In 2013, Giorgia Zanellato and Daniele Bortotto founded the Zanellato/Bortotto studio, based in Treviso. The studio's works include product design, limited editions for galleries, art direction support for a number of companies, and interior design for the private sector. Zanellato/Bortotto studio collaborates with Italian and international companies and its works have been displayed in several galleries and institutions such as Rome's MAXXI, the Triennale Design Museum, the Poldi Pezzoli Museum in Milan, the Somerset House, and The Aram Gallery in London.

1

FAUX-ROTIN

(richer than the original...):
the classic rattan colonial furniture shapes have been elevated, thanks to the use of pickled teak frames.

2

HARD & SOFT- WARE:

soft textured outdoor fabrics on soft cushions, hold by the super-resistant inner hardframe. Upholstery becomes the product's structural frame, yet the aesthetic signature.

THE COLOUR MATCH:

strong fabric colours merge with the pickled teak frames, with the stone and concrete table tops. Every colour and every pattern with its own strenght, making unique moods when they come together.

Sling

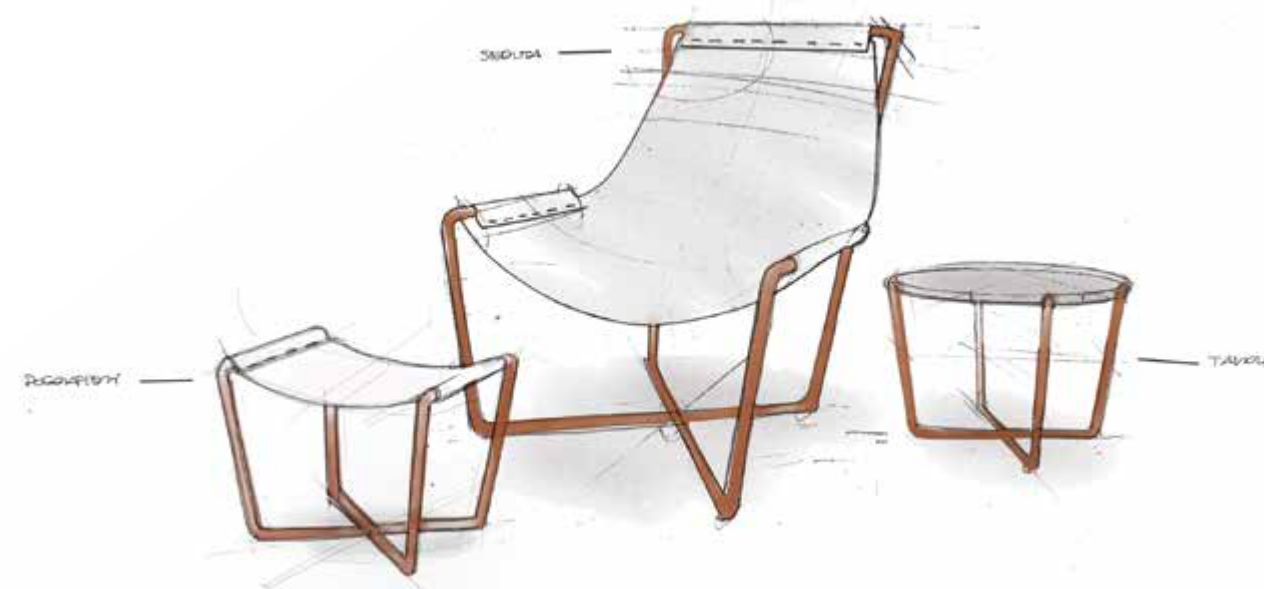

design by Studiopepe.

Studiopepe is a design and architecture agency founded in Milan in 2006, by Arianna Lelli Mami and Chiara Di Pinto.

Studiopepe's focus is on research through the use of a multidisciplinary approach: this includes interior design, product design, and creative consultancy.

The language they use for their projects is stratified, it combines poetic vision with a strong iconographic identity. Studiopepe deals with international commissioned projects as retail, hotels and private commissions.

Ace / Swing

design by Patrick Norguet

Patrick Norguet's spirit is inspired by perfection, details, aesthetics and functionality of refined objects. A descendent of Roger Tallon, Castiglioni, and more recent, Alberto Meda, Patrick Norguet considers himself an industrial designer. He is radical in his search for purity, poetic in his sensibility of products and meticulous in his sense of detail. With him, there is no theorization of the design practice, no inclination for confrontation with the rules of good taste, no pursuit of a gratuitous archetype or a new typology without foundation, no quest for excess or unessential by principle.

SPORT & DESIGN

Probably for the first time, outdoor furniture has been specifically designed for sport environments and elevates the outdoor sport spaces to design environments: why sport furniture should stay hugly? Why Nadal should not have a specific place for its water bottles?

TALKING BENCHES

Not just comfortable and practical seatings, but also a clever and well designed communication media tool, for sport clubs, tournaments, stadiums etc.

3

TEAK, METAL AND COLOURS

High level outdoor materials and elegant colour tones, for the ACE collection. Dedicated to tennis, perfect for every outdoor sport!

Tetris / Gaia

design by Marc Sadler

French, but born in Austria, Marc Sadler now lives in Milan. Experimentation with plastic materials, an underlying theme in his studies as well as a personal interest, has always taken a front seat in his activities as a designer. A citizen of the world (he has lived and worked in France, the United States, Asia, and Italy), he collaborates with many furniture companies as well as companies that manufacture small and large home appliances, lighting fixtures, and more strictly industrial products, and also works heavily in the athletic sector with collaborations spanning three decades.

A four-time winner of ADI's Compasso d'Oro for the Drop lamp (Flos, 1994), the Tite and Mite lamps (Foscarini, 2001), the Big bookcase (Caimi Brevetti, 2008), and the Bellevue refrigerated counter-ice cream display (IFI, 2014), he has received many other important international design awards as well.

His back protector, designed for Dainese, is in the MoMA's permanent design collection in New York and the Mite lamp, for Foscarini, is part of the Beaubourg's design collection in Paris.

Kilt lamp

design by Marcello Ziliani

Marcello Ziliani was born in Brescia and he graduated in architecture at Politecnico di Milano with Achille Castiglioni as a speaker (and teacher unmatched). After three years abroad, he returned to Italy and devoted himself mainly to developing projects for the design of furniture, complement, lighting, bathroom, office, objects and early childhood, working in addition to exhibitions, theatrical scenography, art direction, design coordination, graphics and communication.

He doesn't like the absolutism and the indestructible certainties, he loves to look at things with always different eyes to be in tune with them, he prefers to speak softly and, above all, listen. He signed projects for Aliberti, Calligaris, Casprini, Ethimo, Flex, Flou, Flos, Fontana Arte, Magis, Modo e Modo, Opinion Ciatti, Pedrali, Roche Bobois.
